

Jaden Smith - A Life In A Year Lyrics

[Verse]

Life goes on, it moves like a merry-go
Heartbreak hurts, it strikes like lighting bolt
But your soft lips, they make me wanna just tie the knowt
Girl, let's run away 'cause now you're all I got Heartbeat and my soul speak and I swear it never stops
Baby talk to me, I know I said a lot
I can find your bright soul [?]
[?] in the parking lot
Got them dandelions, blowing in the wind, huh?if it's dark or not
No motels, just sleep on me in the parking lot
Got them dandelions, blowing in the wind, huh?
Father told me that you lose some and win some [?] expect you that my light might break us outside of prison, Girl
That's how you color my life, so glad that your my misses yah
On the road and we're both blowing kisses yuh
I just want you happy, Baby, that just my mission yeah
All in the year this life that we're livin, is it Heaven or it's Earth?
Well, I can't tell the difference yea

(Hook)

New silver lining, you still know it shines
You and I holdin it tight
Livin life in a year
Through this fire, I [?]
Spread your wings, go & fly
Living life in a year
Life in a year
Its you and I, holdin it tight
Life in a year
Spread your wings, go & fly
Living life in a year

(Verse)

Girl you're perfect and I hope you never switch up
On the phone, just scrolling through her pictures

Wrapped a present for you just so I can kiss ya
Not a ball player, but I hit a swishaaaa
Why you always looking for my motives?
Want true love? my heart is open
Can I cuddle with you, baby? I was hoping
Your emotions, it got me roller coasting, jeez
Pop up in the wind, Girl we rollin
The story of our love is a poem
I don't know with all I'm still growing
But, I do know I am falling for you every moment, girl

(hook)

New silver lining, you still know it shines
You and I holdin it tight
Livin life in a year
Through this fire, I [?]
Spread your wings, go & fly
Living life in a year
Life in a year
Its you and I, holdin it tight
Life in a year
